Winter / Cruise 2024

An Ode to Bea

It started with a portrait of her, Bea (Beatriz) Feitler, shot by Bob Richardson in the late Sixties. I love the whole attitude of it – her feeling supremely self-confident in a sleek checked suit with the sleeves rolled up; her hand slightly clenched into a fist.

As a graphic designer and the first female art director of Harper's Bazaar, Bea was a risk-taker, an unstoppable creative force. Feitler searched for a new expression that represented her time, abandoning “the idealized woman”, pre-thinking a new everyday aesthetic. She brought to her work what she saw on the streets and felt in the air—the brightly-colored dandyism of youth, the newly emancipated woman.

Akris Winter / Cruise 2024 is an homage to Bea. A woman ahead of her time, unfazed by previous conventions.
